

300 attend Metro runway hearing

County's study challenged by residents

A well rehearsed troupe of experts needed only an hour to present the Wayne County Road Commission's expansion plans at Detroit Metropolitan Airport to an audience of more than 300 people in the Romulus High School Auditorium Friday night; then the audience took the spotlight and attacked the plan from all angles for five hours.

Heart of the controversy is a proposed 10,000 foot southwest jumbo jet runway which the Commission says is essential if the airport is to continue as a competitive facility the years ahead.

But Romulus residents and others living nearby based their opposition on concerns about the effects of noise on students at Harrison and Merriman schools, loss of tax base, diminution of property values and drainage problems.

The Friday meeting was called in accordance with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), which requires government agencies to draft an environmental impact study and present it at local public hearing - before seeking approval for such programs at the Federal level.

Construction of the runway would utilize 1524 acres of land and call for a portion of Eureka Road between Merriman and Wayne Roads to be relocated, along with the relocation of the perimeter drainage ditch.

James M. Davey, managing director of the Wayne County Road Commission, stated that 85 per cent of the 1524 acres have already been acquired by the commission.

The runway calls for 109 area families to find new homes for demolition of 12 business properties.

But the objections to the new runway which followed the commission's presentation came mostly from residents outside the area scheduled for demolition.

Thomas H. Miller, 25093 Richard Taylor, charged that the effects on humans were being ignored by the commission. He cited low hearing on test scores by children across the nation who attend schools adjacent to major air terminals.

"Think of it," Miller said, "there are 15 schools within the city of Taylor in which school children will be affected by the added noise levels of such expansion."

Dwight Havens, director of the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce, followed with an endorsement of the proposed new runway on behalf of the Detroit businessmen he represents. "Cities are fighting for survival with efficient transportation as a key weapon," Havens said, "we can't afford to let this area fall behind in air transport services."

Then Ronald M. Gould, a law student from Ann Arbor, presented a 19-page sheaf of questions to the Commission regarding the proposal - many pertaining to the methods used by the Commission and its consultants in preparing their weighty, two-volume Preliminary Draft. Gould's questions were too lengthy for oral presentation, so Moderator Joseph L. Sax, a University of Michigan law professor, accepted the written questions for the record and asked Gould for an abbreviated oral version.

TELLS OF EXPANSION - James M. Davey, managing director of the Wayne County Road Commission, operator of the Detroit Metropolitan Airport in Romulus, briefly outlines the proposed expansion plans at Friday's public hearing on environmental impact at Romulus High School.

BOBBY KENNEDY LOOKALIKE - Looking a bit like the late Robert Kennedy is Carl V. Robart, manager of environmental studies and urban planning for the consulting firm hired by the Wayne County Road Commission to study the possible impact of airport expansion upon surrounding communities. Robart read his report to an audience of more than 300 people at the public hearing at Romulus High School on Friday, Jan. 5.

Board to join talks

Effect on Romulus schools feared

At the Monday night Board meeting, the Romulus School Board agreed to ask to be invited along with the City Council to the upcoming U.S. Environmental Committee discussion about the proposed expansion of Detroit Metro Airport.

Their request was decided up in reaction to a public hearing at Romulus High School on Friday January 5, at which the Wayne County Road Commission presented plans for a new 10,000-foot jumbo-jet runway at the Romulus airport.

The School Board, along with many Romulus residents, is concerned about the noise effects this expansion will have on students at Harrison and Merriman schools.

The Board is further concerned over the effects of future southward airport expansion on its schools and students, both in terms of noise and available land area.

Approval for the new runway must come from the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) and other federal agencies such as the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

In other agenda action the Board approved a proposal to allow Superintendent Robert McConeghy to attend - at his own expense - a meeting of the American Association of Superintendents in Atlantic City in February.

The remaining parts of the agenda dealt with personnel action and were quickly approved.

Women give U.S. flags to township

The John M. Wahl Women's Relief Corps presented Van Buren Township and its fire department with two American flags in a colorful ceremony at Tuesday night's Board meeting.

The Wahl Women's Relief Corps, which was formed after the Civil War, is one of the oldest women's patriotic organization in the United States.

Its primary purpose is to create patriotic spirit, through the presentation and dedication of flags - and in other ways.

In one of his last official acts before his assassination, President John Kennedy made this Corps a true auxiliary of the Grand Army of the Republic.

At the beginning of last night's meeting Ruth Knysz, secretary of the Corps made the dedication remarks; her great grandfather was John Wahl.

Corps President Nine Bodenmiller and Ruth Knysz then presented the flags to the township and fire department. Supervisor Elton Gollwitzer accepted the flag for the township and Treasurer Ralph Hedman accepted for the fire department.

The Corps also promotes spirit through a variety of charitable acts, sponsoring scout troops, working with senior citizens, the underprivileged, and hospital groups.

HE'S ALIVE ... Judy Mateja (left) and Paula Bathurst beam with joy after learning that Michael O'Connor, whose VIVA bracelet they both wear, was able to get a letter to his family in Warren. The bracelets are inscribed: CWO Michael O'Connor, 2-4-68.

POW 'shared' by area girls

Voices in Vital America (VIVA) started a program several years ago to keep the names of American Prisoners-of-War before the public while at the same time trying to gain release for the POW's.

The means to accomplish both purposes was to sell POW-MIA bracelets with the name and date of capture (or date missing) of American soldiers lost in Vietnam.

The purchaser of a VIVA bracelet buys it for any one of a number of reasons, but basically resolves not to take it off until all the prisoners are released or accounted for.

It becomes a particularly personal experience when word from a POW is received in this country and someone somewhere discovers they are wearing that prisoner's name.

Such was the situation for two Romulus school girls who discovered that not only were they wearing prisoner Michael O'Connor's name, but that he resided in nearby Warren.

Ten-year-old Judy Mateja and 12-year-old Paula Bathurst didn't even know each other but they shared emotions when word reached them that O'Connor's letter was among the ones recently brought back from Hanoi by folksinger and anti-war activist Joan Baez.

Paula, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bathurst, 17961 Inkster Rd., had originally bought her bracelet in late November "because everyone else is wearing 'em." Judy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mateja, 9016 Grover, got hers six months ago as a gift from her mother.

Both girls were elated at the news that O'Connor was alive and apparently well. Both are also dismayed that the war seems to be endless and futile.

Paula had written to O'Connor's parents through the VIVA organization but had received no reply. Following her learning of the letter (on the 11:00 news Thursday), and that O'Connor was a Warren resident, her parents called Mrs. O'Connor who apologized for not answering the letter but promised to keep in touch.

Judy has not made an attempt to contact the O'Connor family, but her teacher, Mrs. Judi Snabes, at Cory Elementary School has indicated that a class project will be made of communicating with the O'Connors.

While Paula is the only one in her family to wear a VIVA bracelet, all of the Mateja's wear them from grandmother on down. In fact, grandmother, Mrs. William Smith is part of the VFW Auxiliary in Allen Park (No. 5572) which is selling the bracelets for VIVA.

Paula's two older sisters, both wearing bracelets of their own, had feelings about little sister's fortunate circumstances.

Twelve year old Linda said, "I wish I had that bracelet," while Robann, 16, was just "happy that one of the POW's could contact his relatives and that Judy had his bracelet."

All of the girls concurred with the general national sentiment of not taking off the bracelets until all the prisoners get home.

Persons wishing to purchase bracelets of their own may contact VIVA at 10966 LeConte Ave., Los Angeles, California, 90024, or they may contact POW Committee of Michigan, P.O. Box 71, Troy, Michigan, 48064, which acts as the local distributor for VIVA. Also the Allen Park VFW Auxiliary has a stock for local residents who can call Mrs. Dolores Rossow at 928-7348.

The auxiliary, alone, has sold some 1,000 of the bracelets since they began handling them late last summer.

AIRPORT MEETING DRAGS ON - The airport hearings veered toward boredom upon occasion during Friday's six-hour session, but most of the more than 300 spectators were still in the building (if not in their seats) when Moderator Joseph L. Sax finally adjourned the affair shortly after midnight. Enterprise - Roman photos by Lothar Konietzko

Lottery winner pursues prize

Mrs. Thomas J. (Betty) Coleman of Romulus has retained a Detroit attorney in an attempt to regain the $200,000 prize that was denied her following a recent mixup in numbers during a weekly running of the super-drawing in the Michigan state lottery.

It all started when Mrs. Coleman bought a ticket for the regular drawing of Dec. 14 and discovered she was a "double-number" winner.

She notified lottery officials, who invited her to the Tel-12 Mall in Southfield to vie for the big prize on Dec. 21.

Along with nine other contestants, Mrs. Coleman appeared at the appointed time and a short while later was declared winner of the $200,000 top award.

"When they said I had won the top prize, they handed me a check for $20,000," she explained. "Then, about 20 minutes later, I was told there had been a mistake and that I was not the big winner. The officials took back the first check and gave me one for $10,000, my first installment as a $50,000 winner."

Winners of the grand prize of $200,000 are paid in 10 installments of $20,000 each, and $50,000 winners are paid in five increments of $10,000 apiece.

In addition to the top prize in the Dec. 21 super-drawing, there were six $50,000 winners and three $10,000 awards.

The confusion stemmed from the fact that Mrs.

Coleman held the number "9" in the super drawing and Stanley Yao of Dearborn, possessed number "6".

According to lottery officials, the number nine was drawn by a shopping center Santa Claus, who read the number upside down as a six, despite the fact that it was underlined so it would be read as a nine, and the word "nine" was typed under the numeral.

Because of the misreading, Yao was declared a $50,000 winner and was handed a check for $10,000 and the ticket containing the number, and the drawing continued.

When the top prize ticket - really a six, but read as a nine - was pulled, Mrs. Coleman

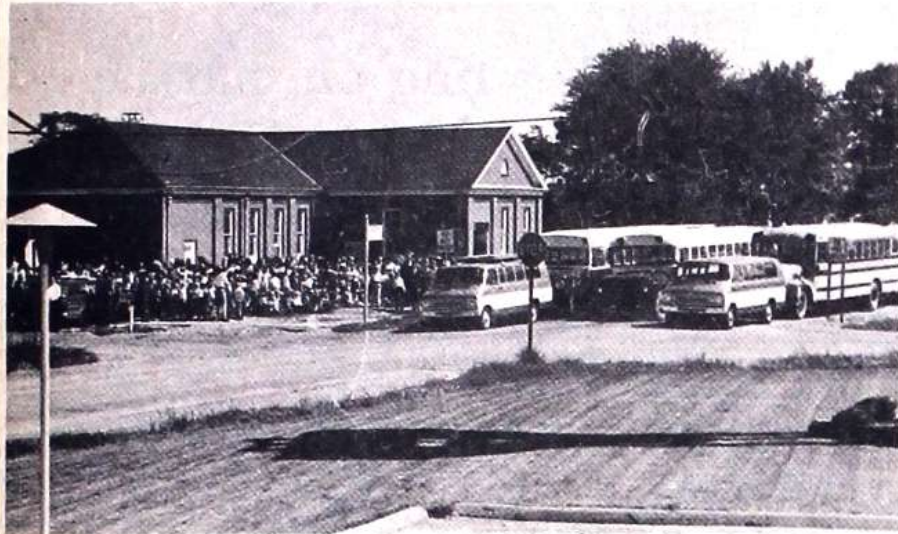

FIGHTS LOTTERY DECISION - Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Coleman of Romulus inspect a letter from Michigan state lottery officials informing her that she is the winner of $50,000 in a superdrawing held in December. Mrs. Coleman has launched a court fight to secure the top prize of $200,000, which officials originally told her she had won. - Enterprise - Roman photo

Two major Junior Achievement events are ready for the new year, one geared toward fund raising and the other geared toward recognition of outstanding participants in the program.

The fund drive, spearheaded by General Chairman Richard L. Terrell, has an announced goal of $502,500.

The drive, to kick-off Feb. 1, will run through March 13.

The 26 Southeastern Michigan J.A. Centers have already selected 70 young men and women from their numbers to enter the Jan. 6 regional, semi-final competition.

Sixteen of the teens come from area Junior Achievement Centers in Wayne, Monroe and Redford along with the Telegraph and the Down river centers.

Competition will be held at the Holiday Inn on Michigan Avenue in Dearborn.

The two winners from each region will meet in final competition Jan. 26 at the Detroit Hilton Hotel.

Area unaffected by new law

A new law aimed at professionalizing the assessment business went into effect Jan. 1, but it won't change things in Western Wayne County municipalities. The measure states that this year's assessment rolls must be prepared by certified assessing officers or the communities cannot levy taxes. It also specifies that they may be local, county or state assessors.

County assessors presently serve all municipalities in this area, according to Charles Morley, director of the Wayne County Bureau of Taxation. Although all cities in the region have assessors, none are certified and all work with the county officials in preparing assessment rolls. Royce E. Smith, mayor and assessor of Belleville, and G.E. Gollwitzer, Van Buren Township supervisor, both are currently studying to become qualified assessors, and expect to become certified in the near future.

Quered by an Associated Newspapers' reporter, spokesmen for all other Western Wayne County communities indicated they would continue to use the assessment services of the county Bureau of Taxation, for which they are charged. One official, who summed up the viewpoint of most municipalities, explained that it is much less costly to use the county services than to operate a complete local assessor's office, with the expensive equipment needed to do the job properly.

Morley said the new law will have very little, if any, effect on Wayne County communities, since the Bureau of Taxation has been handling most of the assessing anyway.

But he noted that most other counties in Michigan will have a problem because they are not geared to handle the work for their communities. Some 475 cities and townships in the state do not have their own certified assessors, and nearly all of them are in counties that have not been offering the services to them.

Assessing services can also be obtained from the state, but at a much higher cost than charged by county governments.

Although termed a new law, the measure requiring certified assessors actually was passed by the state legislature several years ago, allowing communities time to acquire certified assessment services.

AIRPORT STAFF MEETS THE PUBLIC -- James M. Davey, director of the Wayne County Road Commission which operates Detroit Metropolitan Airport, settles down for a five-hour question period from area residents following the Commission's presentation of airport expansion plans at Romulus High School, Friday, Jan. 5.

Airport plan challenged

Mayor Hyle Carmichael of Romulus expressed annoyance at the Commission's failure to consult with city officials during the 18-month planning period which preceded Friday's meeting.

Romulus Councilman James C. Stewart followed with the question: "How is this airport land going to affect our city's ability to meet its bond obligations?"

Stewart noted that the city had obligated itself to some $15 million in sewer improvements on a 40-year program in which repayment was based on anticipated residential and business growth.

"I want to know how the airport planners feel about compensating Romulus for this loss," Stewart said.

George Moore, Huron Twp. supervisor then took the floor and taped a set of maps and charts produced by township personnel over the Commission's presentation map. "We don't have the resources at the township level to conduct sophisticated decibel research," Moore said, "so we just have to accept their expert findings in that area."

He then used his own maps to point out deficiencies in the drainage plan proposal - and suggested consideration of a master north-south drain from the airport to the Huron River that would aid many area communities and provide a recreation parkway as a bonus.

Perhaps the most startling testimony attacking the proposal was presented by Mort Sterling, Wayne County Air Pollution Control Director. Sterling chided the Commission for not utilizing the latest or best methods of measuring and evaluating some kinds of pollution in preparing their Environmental Impact Statement.

A few minutes after midnight - six hours after he had opened the hearing, Moderator Jax thanked those still remaining and adjourned the hearing.

A member of the Wayne County Planning Commission was overheard telling a bystander in the hallway, it's going to be built, there's no way to stop it; they've got most of the land they need already, so getting approval is just a formality."

But perhaps Sam Badali of Romulus summed it up best for the dissidents with: "I wish we had half of it back - hell, I wish we had it all of it back."

IRS farm tax estimates due

Farmers who earned at least two-thirds of their 1972 gross income from farming should file their 1972 declaration of estimated federal individual income tax and pay the tax by Monday, using Form 1040 ES.

However, farmers do not have to file a declaration if they file their 1972 tax return and pay all the tax due by March 1, 1973, according to Thomas A. Cardoza, district director of Internal Revenue for Michigan.

Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Declaration of Estimated Tax," furnishes information on this subject. It is available free at your IRS district office.

Woodhaven auto studies

With the opening of the new Woodhaven High School, a vocational training program in three basic types of current automobile engines can now be offered to students in the Downriver School District according to Mr. Earl Laich, vocational education director for the district.

The school recently received three late - model auto production engines and related components as gifts of the Engineering Staff of General Motors Corporation.

In addition to a previously donated 1971 Vega 4-cylinder engine and transmission assembly and a 1972 Nova 6-cylinder engine, a 1972 Buick V8 engine was recently donated for use in a program which includes three area high schools.

GM has also provided a 1972 Nova front suspension assembly, radiator assembly, propeller shaft and universal joint assembly, rear axle assembly including brakes, and energy-absorbing steering column assembly with transmission shift linkage for student use.

The program includes about 300 students who participate in 11 different vocational programs, including Auto Mechanics.

Approximately 75 automotive students are given lectures and instructions in basic fundamentals, use of shop tools, cooling systems, lubrication systems, ignition systems, carburetion systems, exhaust systems, engine electrical systems, standard and automatic transmissions, differentials, and brakes. In addition, course time is devoted to practical shop experience including use of equipment and tools, servicing of complete chassis, and, in some cases, assembly of entire autos.

Laich said the donations by GM also make it possible for students to learn functioning

Michigan legislature had productive session

As we swing into a new year, your legislature will officially mark the beginning of a new year too—organizationally that is.

When the new legislature convenes tomorrow, it will mark the beginning of the State of Michigan's 77th legislature. Each legislative session being two years.

By WILLIAM FAUST,
State
Senator
13th District

All 38 senators will be back this year since we do not face reelection until 1974. But, in the House of Representatives, there will be some new faces.

Last year's make-up of the House saw the defeat of 16 members in the August primary or the November general election. Another eight sought other elective offices and four others retired altogether.

In my senatorial district, there will be three new House members—Westland's John Markes, William Keith in Garden City and Gary Owen of Ypsilanti. All three are Democrats.

The Democrats in last year's election picked up an additional two seats in the House to give them a 60-50 edge over minority Republicans. Last session they were split 58-52. It takes 56 votes to pass a bill in the House of Representatives.

Barring unforeseen changes in the Senate, it will remain tied 19-19 with the Republicans retaining control with the tie breaking vote of the Republican Lt. governor. In the Senate, it takes 20 votes to pass a measure.

Evaluating the previous session, it was a productive two years—not to mention controversial at times. I don't stand alone in my evaluation as the governor has publicly said that the 1972 legislative session was the most fruitful he has seen in more than a decade in Lansing.

He commended the members of both Houses for this bipartisan record of achievement.

Although numerous bills from both legislative chambers were signed into law, the most significant measures included the presidential primary, no-fault automobile insurance, stricter roadway billboard regulations, an increase in the Housing Authority bonding limit, a comprehensive mass transportation package, and an environmental protection measure to protect the state's lakes and streams.

The session also brought forth a uniform building code, a new formula for tax and revenue sharing, a safety glass law, a land sales act designed to curb land sale abuses, plus consumer legislation in the form of abolishing the holder-in-due-course concept which now allows consumers to hold up payment on articles or services until they get satisfaction on complaints concerning the purchase and a new law to protect buyers from abuse by door-to-door salesmen.

We also made Michigan the 18th state to ratify the equal rights amendment for women.

While greyhound dog racing failed to meet legislative approval, another form of legalized gambling became a reality through the voter approved state lottery. The lottery has proved quite successful grossing $9.85 million for the state in less than two months of operation.

If you are a bingo fan, get out your markers and lucky rabbit's foot as it will be legal for non-profit organizations after April 1.

So you see, amid all the shouts and controversy surrounding such things as legislative reapportionment, busing, abortion and "glass cages" for newsmen, we did succeed in passing positive legislation.

Right name, wrong church

An article published in the Dec. 20 edition of the Romulus Roman concerning Life Scout Fred Opificius, of 16147 Merriman Rd., Romulus, was in error in stating that his troop, 315, is sponsored by St. Paul's Lutheran Church, of New Boston.

Fred is a member of that church, but the troop is sponsored by the St. Paul United Church of Christ, in Taylor.

Other Scouts who helped Fred in a recent cleanup campaign he organized in Romulus were Robert Shafer, Life Scout; Tom Durham, first class; Tim Durham, second class; Mike Anthony, first anthony, second class. All are from Taylor. They worked 22 hours in the drive, collecting 346 pounds of old political signs.

Church sets family dinner

The Willow United Methodist Church, New Boston, will have a family style chicken dinner beginning at 5 o'clock tonight (Wednesday) in the church basement.

The church is located on Willow Road east of Waltz Road.

Everything you wanted to know about S.E.V.!

BY G. ELTON GOLLWITZER
Supervisor, Van Buren Township

The basis for real estate and personal property taxes is the State Constitution which requires that such taxes shall be based on 50 percent of the value represented. This is simple and clear. When this figure is established, it is simply multiplied by the basic millage of 15 and divided by 1000 to arrive at your township tax in dollars.

Other millage figures have been voted for specific purposes, such as County, School, etc.

The figure which most people are curious about which shows on the tax bill is the State Equalized Value (S.E.V.). It is the basis for the tax as mentioned above.

Personally, I have always felt it was not well named since, on a given piece of property, this figure gets bigger each year and one is inclined to feel that "every year we get equalled". This is hard to accept.

It is obvious that if the terms of the State Constitution are to be met, the value of the property must be updated continuously.

In Van Buren Township, the two forces that make this change necessary are: Inflation - 3 to 5 percent per year; and Growth Effect - about 3 percent per year.

The latter item is effected by our "suburban sprawl." Depreciation seems to have little effect on the value (sales price) of the property.

It would obviously be impractical to assess property frequently enough to keep the value up to date. Instead, the "assessed value" is altered every year by applying the S.E.V. factor.

This past year, our "assessed value" was slightly more than doubled by the S.E.V. factor.

For a few years, tax bills did not show assessed value. As a result, nothing on the tax bill remained constant from year to year.

For the past two years both the assessed value and the State Equalized Value have been shown.

In most cases, the assessed value has remained constant since 1958 - if buildings are old and have not been changed.

Newer buildings have been assessed on a 1958-basis and have remained constant.

On the other hand, S.E.V.

"factors" have changed each year and continue to change, as follows:

1967	1.4279
1968	1.5496
1969	1.6981
1970	1.84
1971	1.98
1972	2.07

Establishing the equalization factor differs in various communities. In an active county such as Wayne it is possible to use actual sales figures. The sales of real estate for three years are added and compared with the respective assessed values.

The ratio between these two sums is considered to indicate the ratio between 1958 values and 1972 values.

Each year, the latest figures are added and the figures for the third year back are dropped so that the ratio represents the latest three years.

This "moving" average keeps from having wild changes due to an exceptional single year.

Youths face Sumpter charge

Examination is set tomorrow for two youths apprehended after allegedly breaking and entering a Sumpter Township home on New Years Day.

James A. Orr, 17, of 48433 Van Born Rd., Belleville, and Donald E. Taylor, 17, of 21223

Harriet St., Romulus, were arrested on Jan. 1 by Patr. Ralph A. Griffith, of the Sumpter Police Department.

Responding to a call that a breakin was in progress at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stepaniak, 49330 Arkona Rd., Griffith arrived in time to see the two defendants leaving the house and made the arrest. The Stepaniaks were away at the time.

Orr and Taylor were arraigned by Judge James B. Stone in 34th District Court, Jan. 2. Both entered pleas of not guilty, and were released on $1,000 cash bond each.

Girls 'adopt' grandparents

Girl Scout Troop 269, Huron Township, was busy throughout December practicing a play and preparing Christmas stockings for their "adopted" grandparents at the Van Buren Convalescent Home. The play, "My Best for Him," was presented for residents of the home on Dec. 26, and the girls then presented the stockings to the adopted grandparents - and shiny red apples to the rest of the residents.

The girls and the Van Buren residents then joined together in singing Christmas carols.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Titles and lyrics tell a lot about a man who writes songs. For Willis David Hoover, they let you know where he's been and where he's at.

But it's anyone's guess where he's going. People who hang out with Hoover know him only by his last name, and as a singer-composer extraordinaire.

Hoover's style touches all the bases and extremes of life. In many instances, it's a reflection of his own life—like when he went from being a Tennessee woodland hermit to managing an Italian restaurant.

On the one side of the man is the song "Jesus Don't Drive No Fastback Ford." It's a tongue-in-cheek look at today's materialistic society.

But the other side of Hoover is delicate and sensitive. He sings seriously about everything from spending the night with a prostitute, as "Come With Me," to being down and out on drugs, as in "Absolute Zero."

Somewhere in between, there's a veteran photographer, a novelist and a cartoon creator.

At present, Hoover, 27, says he's "sort of out in limbo." His latest batch of songs remains on tape, yet is more profound than the cuts on his first album, entitled "Hoover." He publishes for Glaser Brothers.

The new songs, he says, represent the more simplistic side of the soft country-folk artist.

Hoover grew up in Shenandoah, Iowa, and came to Nashville—much through the insistence of friends—about six years ago. Prior to that he said he got his kicks by "driving around in my car and listening to myself on the radio on Saturdays. It was a real ego trip."

Back then, the only time his songs got airplay were for 30 minutes on Saturdays at a local Shenandoah radio station where a close friend worked as a disc jockey.

Through it all, one thing has remained fairly constant—Hoover's rather unorthodox style of writing.

"I write the melodies first and the words come later," he explained. After about 5-10 hours of pounding out a melody "all of a sudden the words come out."

"Then usually a verse comes real quick and, hell, it'll take me another 18 hours to write the other two verses."

Hoover's theory of songwriting is intriguing and, apparently, reflects a man who lets go with a lot of mental sweat when he writes.

"For the money you get," he said, "you pay the price."

"The way I look at it is when I write a song I'm giving up some of myself and my soul."

Frustration, too, plays a role in Hoover's life. "Ever since I came to Nashville, people would start screaming and yelling about what a genius I am. But nothing really big would come of it," said Hoover, whose real niche is with the so-called "Nashville Underground."

"I don't consider myself a failure," he said, "after all I lived for a long time in isolation off them money I had made."

"I've still got a lot to offer the public. And the public has a lot to offer me."

Antique lecture slated

Members of the Henry Ford Museum staff will present an inside look at some of the museum's collections at 8:30 p.m. Friday, at the third in the current series of annual antiques lectures.

The lecture will describe the present condition of the Museum's world-renowned collections, announce some of the more outstanding recent acquisitions and outline the plans for the future.

Robert G. Wheeler, vice president for Research and Interpretation, will act as host for the evening. He will open the lecture with an over-all view of the Museum and Greenfield Village, their collections and their growth and development.

Robert Bishop, museum editor and acting curator of furniture, will discuss the publications created by the Museum and Village in the past two-and-one-half years and the projects now in preparation for future release.

He will also show slides of the most important recent additions to the furniture collections and discuss the installation of the Museum's new period rooms.

For information, call 271-1620.

SPECIAL DETROIT APPEARANCE — The Garden City West High School Brass Ensemble presented a special program in accompaniment to the school's 32-member singers in the Fisher Building lobby to wish passers-by a Merry Christmas. Each day at noon during December, various metropolitan Detroit area high school and college groups played or sang Christmas carols in the New Center area as part of the "Chrystal Christmas" program sponsored by the New Center Area Action Council.

Sunday concert at O'Leary

The Garden City Concert Band, comprised of musicians from ten communities surrounding Garden City, will present the second of its current concert series on Sunday, January 14, at 3 p.m. in O'Leary Center for Performing Arts on Middlebelt Rd., just north of Ford Rd.

Included in the program are several marches among which are "Barnum and Bailey's Favorite" and "St. Louis Blues March."

Also on the program is music from "Cabaret" and "Viva Mexico."

An 18-piece dance band comprised of members of the concert band will present four "Big Band" numbers.

Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Senior Citizens are admitted without charge.

The band, which number more than 60 members, is also looking for new members. Because of what Band President J.T. Falk calls "normal attrition" — people moving or being reassigned at work — the band has several openings and Dale Werner, director, wants to expand several other sections.

Needed primarily are clarinets, flutes, tenor saxes, French Horns, basses and percussionists. Other instrumentalists are welcome.

"There should be a lot of musicians from this area — Wayne, Inkster, Livonia, Westland and others, who don't feel like 'hanging it up' musically," Werner explained. As long as they're experienced, it becomes only a matter of time before they can round back into good playing shape — usually within a month or two.

The band rehearses at 7:45 p.m. every Tuesday at Radcliff Junior High School adjacent to West High School in Garden City.

"Musicians who might be interested could get an idea of what the band is like at this Sunday's concert," Werner suggested. "Our goal is to have fun, but still become one of the state's better community bands. We're rapidly reaching that goal," he added.

For information, musicians interested can call Falk at 421-7417 or Werner at 472-6762 — or show up at Radcliff Junior High School on Tuesday with their instruments.

Art show open Friday

The London Arts Gallery, 321 Fisher Building, will present Friday a comprehensive exhibition of paintings by Harry Nadler. The showing will continue through Feb. 9th.

Nadler has just been awarded the 1972 Child Hassam Purchase Prize, granted by the National Institute of Arts and Letters. His painting, "Turkish Bath Number 3" has been purchased for the Institute's permanent collection.

Nadler, born in 1930 in Los Angeles, received both a B.A. and an M.A. from U.C.L.A. and then became an instructor in Fine Arts there. He has also taught at the New York University, the Brooklyn Museum Art School,

Library Open House

An open house is scheduled tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the Wayne County Service Center Building, Venoy and Van Born roads, for members of all library boards and commissions from communities that are part of the Wayne County Federated Library System.

you for making the aged at Van Buren Convalescent Home enjoy a happier and merrier Christmas. God bless you all.

Now that the holidays are behind us and a new year ahead of us, we must get going and make those plans for the year. There will be meetings to attend so get out and voice your opinion.

There will be the Loyal Order of Moose 934, and their enrollment dinners to be held so let's help when we can, and I hope it will be very often.

The fish fries will continue every Friday from 5 to 8 p.m. We will be needing volunteers and donations for all things that will be going on this year. Let's make Belleville Moose Lodge 934 and Chapter 1135 a big success in 1973.

Sumpter chief warns cyclists

Sumpter Township Police Chief Terry Williams has issued orders to his personnel to crack down on violations of the Uniform Traffic Code, relative to bicycle use and safety upon the highways in Sumpter Township.

In issuing this order, the Chief made the following statement to the people of Sumpter- and especially to bicycle users and their parents:

"Due to the increase in population over the past several years, bicycle riding upon the highway has become an ever increasing danger to both the bike rider and the motor vehicle operator. Therefore, bicycles and bicycle riders are going to be required to properly equip and ride their bikes or face the possibility of receiving a violation."

The officers have been advised to concentrate their efforts toward safety in the congested areas open to heavy traffic and to look for:

Equipment: A Bell - Audible for at least 100 feet; Reliable brakes.

Safety: Yield the right of way when emerging from a driveway - to all motor vehicles approaching; No person shall carry any packages, bundles, or articles which prevent the driver from keeping both hands upon the handle bars; No more than two riding abreast (side by side); Ride as near to the right-hand side of roadway as practicable; Carry only the number of persons the bike is equipped for; Obey all traffic control signals, signs and devices, and ride in the same direction as traffic.

Chief Williams asks the assistance of all parents and hopes they will co-operate in making children, bicycle riders and vehicle operators, safer upon the streets.

Parents or bike riders requiring further information may call the Police Department at 697-0900 during the regular business hours.

No Christmas season is complete without a visit from Santa Claus and Romulus' Y.W.C.A. pre-school nursery has no exception.

Santa, also known as Romulus City Councilman Fred Junior Block, appeared at the nursery in the Wesleyan Church at Five Points, carrying toys and smiles for all of the youngsters. Santa even took time out from his hectic schedule to sit down and talk with each of the tots.

One youngster remarked to teacher Ann Johnson, "My really, truly Santa was here, wasn't he?"

There are still openings in the Y.W.C.A. pre-school nursery program which meets one morning each week from 9:30 to 11:30.

The fee is 75 cents per child for each day, payable at the beginning of each month.

Mothers of the children must be "Y" members and both mother and child must have a negative TB test on file.

The pre-school nursery reports there are a limited number of openings for three-year-old boys and girls in Tuesday and Thursday classes, and for four-year-old girls on Wednesday. However, no new enrollments are being accepted for four-year-old boys; that category is completely filled and there is "a rather lengthy waiting list already", a nursery official reported, regretfully.

Further information about the program can be obtained by calling 941-0027.

Busy schedule ahead for 'Y' pre-schoolers

ORDER FOR HEARING SERVICE OF PROCESS AND PUBLICATION STATE OF MICHIGAN IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF WAYNE

At a session of the Circuit Court for said County held in the City-County Building, 2 Woodward Avenue, in the city of Detroit, on the Dec. 1, 1972.

PRESENT: HONORABLE MICHAEL L. STACEY
Circuit Judge

IN RE: ACQUISITION OF LAND
IN CITY OF ROMULUS, WAYNE COUNTY
MICHIGAN IN AN AREA KNOWN AS THE
WAYNE-BEVERLY URBAN RENEWAL PROJECT
NO. 1 MICH R-187 (L.G.)

No. 223-732

The above matter having come before the Court upon the filing of a petition by the CITY OF ROMULUS, praying for the acquisition of land in the City of Romulus, Wayne County, Michigan for urban renewal, and

Said petition describes the private property necessary to be taken for making said improvement for the use and benefit of the public, and sets forth the purpose of said petition which is the taking of private property, for a just compensation to be made, without the consent of the owners for the said public improvement. The petition prays that the Court make an order fixing a date for hearing on said petition, that said order shall be served and published in accordance with Act 149 of 1911, that said petition further prays that on the day of hearing on the order, in the absence of cause shown, the Court set a further date at which time a jury of freeholders will be impaneled, to determine the questions of necessity and just compensation.

A petition will be supplied to any party who has a legal interest in the property sought to be acquired upon the filing of an appearance by such party or a petition will be supplied to any attorney representing such party upon the filing of an appearance.

ON MOTION OF KENNETH M. DAVIES, P.C., Attorney for Petitioner;

IT IS ORDERED that on Mon. the 29 day of Jan. A.D., 1972, at 10:00 A.M. in the old County Building Room 401 in the City of Detroit, this Court will hear the petitioner and the persons named in such petition as parties in interest, concerning the matters set forth in said petition; that at said time the parties in interest shall appear to show cause, if any they may have, why the prayer of the petition should not be granted. Failure to comply with this order, and make a proper appearance will result, in the event the jury finds there is necessity for the project, in the jury determining compensation for each parcel of property described in the petition as the jury deems just.

Jaycees to aid continuing ed.

Lee Silvey, president of the Romulus Jaycees, has announced that the Jaycee Club will assist the Romulus Continuing and Community Education program in promoting its activities to the residents of the community.

First phase of assistance will consist of developing and circulating a brochure outlining the activities sponsored by the Continuing Education offices.

Jaycee members and Jaycee Auxiliary wives will pass out the brochures at various business establishments during the week-end of January 12.

The cooperative effort stems from a national Jaycee resolution support Community Education throughout the country.

William Smith, director of Community Education for Romulus, pointed out that community and continuing education is one of the fastest-growing educational movements in the nation and is based on the theory that expensive school facilities should be used day and night on a year-round basis, rather than the traditional 8 a.m. - 3 p.m. school usage.

Further information about Romulus Continuing Education opportunities can be obtained by calling the Board of Education Offices, 941-1600, extension 37, or by contacting a member of the Romulus Jaycees.

Plea made for Mother's March

Mrs. Jane Simrak, chairman of the March of Dimes in Belleville, has issued a plea to area residents both for greater financial support in this year's campaign against birth defects, and for more volunteers to assist in the "Mother's March" scheduled Jan. 31 through Feb. 5.

"It's really too bad that in an area with a population of around 20,000 people, we can't get more residents to back the drive," Mrs. Simrak said. "Last year the total collection

--from canisters, mail-ins and the Mother's March -- amounted to only $444."

"We know that Belleville citizens are just as concerned about the fight to prevent and treat birth defects as those in other areas, and we wish they would show it by giving our campaign greater support."

Mrs. Simrak commented that the Mother's March netted only $250 last year, down from the $350 collected in 1971. She said she felt the main problem is the lack of enough volunteers to participate in the door-to-door Mother's March.

"I hope anyone who is interested in helping will telephone me at 721-0622, or call Mrs. Carolyn DeFiore, area co-chairman, at 697-7795," Mrs. Simrak said. "We not only need door-to-door collectors, but area captains to coordinate their efforts."

Volunteers who have come forward so far include Mrs. Marlene Davis, area co-chairman; Mrs. Rosemary Treece, area captain for the Rawsonville Woods Trailer Park, and Mrs. Janet Knight and Miss Londa Navotny, also area captains, and Mrs. Lillian Burmann, Mrs. Carolyn Plaskon, Mrs. Vernon W. Yearout, Mrs. William Howley, Mrs. Louise Alford, Mrs. Maryann Verrot and Mrs. Dolly Medeiros.

Eight out of eight! Romulus wrestlers 'perfect'

Romulus' wrestlers put on a perfect performance in their final matches to win the Trenton Invitational Tournament over an eight-team field.

The Eagles, who finished sixth in the state last year out of 176 schools, placed eight men in the Trenton finals and then proceeded to capture each match. These victories enabled Romulus to edge Trenton, 114½-108½ for the title.

"Every match was a key one," said Romulus Coach Jim Stallings. "As it turned out, if we had lost one match, we would have lost the tournament."

Five of the victories especially critical insofar as they came against the second place Trojans. Eagle victors over Trenton included Phillip Ford, Bradley Smith (20-1-1 this year), Rudy Williams, Marvin Williams and first year wrestler Henry Reed.

Other victorious Eagle wrestlers were Lamar Sandusky (a ninth grader), Capt. Vergil Smith, Bradley's older brother, and Robert Morrison (22-0 this year). Safi Williams placed fourth.

The battle for first place remained close throughout the tournament and actually wasn't decided until the final match. In that one Romulus junior heavyweight Henry Reed pinned his opponent in 50 seconds to give Romulus the title.

"There was a lot of pressure on a first year wrestler," commented Stallings. "But he came through in the clutch. In fact, all of our kids were just outstanding."

Romulus stands with a 4-3 record in meet competition, along with tournament victories at Garden City West and Trenton and a second place finish in the Garden City tournament.

Stallings stated that "I always schedule tough teams. With nine starters back from last year, I think we can do as well if not better in the state this year."

On Saturday the Eagles will wrestle in the Ann Arbor Invitational Tournament.

Last period slump haunts Belleville

A disastrous fourth quarter Belleville slump enabled Livonia Bentley to post a 73-67 victory in their Suburban Eight League game last Friday.

Leading 62-50 after three quarters, Belleville could only manage to score 5 points in the last quarter compared to 23 for their opponent. In the last five minutes of the game Belleville only scored one point - a free throw by Al Cicotte with two minutes left.

"It's a difficult thing to explain," commented

Belleville Coach Al Gates. "The ball simply would not go down for us in the fourth quarter."

Al Cicotte topped Belleville with 27 points and Terry Pate added 17. Tim Bollin and Brent Boegler paced Bentley with 20 points apiece.

The loss dropped Belleville's league record to 0-3. Their next action comes against league foe Edsel Ford (2-1).

Bentley upped its record in league action to 3-0, leaving them in a first place tie with Allen Park.

Romulus ranked 8th Eagles stand among state elite cagers

Owner of a 7-1 record, Romulus' basketball team is ranked in an eighth place tie among Michigan's Class B quintets in the first weekly Associated Press poll.

The Eagles, whose only defeat was a 58-56 setback by Highland Park in the finals of the River Rouge Christmas tournament, totaled 28 points in the vote taken among the state's sportswriters and sportscasters to share the eighth spot with Berkley (7-0).

The vote, submitted by five members of the press statewide in each of the four high school classes, counts 15 points for a first place vote, 14 for a second, on down to one for a 15th place vote.

Saginaw, undefeated after six games, lead the poll with 74 points based on four first place votes and one second. Ann Arbor Pioneer, owner of an 8-0 mark, and Detroit Catholic Central, which has a 9-0 record, share second place with 65 points.

Other teams ahead of the Eagles include, with records and votes included, Detroit Northwestern (10-0, 59 points; Detroit Cooley (9-0), 57; Flint Northern (5-1), 43, and Flint Northwestern (5-1), 33.

In Class B, Carleton Airport is ranked eighth with 45 points. Airport is undefeated in 10 games. Ypsilanti Lincoln (6-1) is 12th.

Wayne Memorial wrestlers score decisive victory

Wayne Memorial has an extra reason for wanting its invitational wrestling match to become an annual affair.

The host Zebras scored a decisive victory in the inaugural meet Saturday, running up 110 points and claiming three individual first places in the eight-team event.

Mike Guerrero, at 105 pounds, John Bullard at 138 pounds and Bill Goen at 155 pounds all were individual titlists for the Zebras.

Adrian, which also had three individual winners, finished a distant second with 85 points; Detroit Catholic Central was third with 79 points and three champions; Ann Arbor Pioneer was fourth with 60½ points and two firsts; Detroit Thurston was fifth with 44 points and one individual winner; with North Farmington having 26 points, Garden City East 19 and Belleville failing to score.

Bullard, who scored three straight pins en route to the 138 title, scored the fastest fall with a 34-second effort in the second round.

Final scores: Wayne Memorial 110 points; 2 Adrian 85; 3 Detroit Catholic Central 79; 4 Ann Arbor Pioneer 60½; 5 Detroit Thurston 44; 6 North Farmington 26; 7 Garden City East 19; 8 Belleville 0.

Romulus grapplers fall to Wayne Memorial

The superiority of Romulus wrestlers' in the heavier weight classes was just not enough to pull them through last Thursday's competition against Wayne Memorial High. Wayne was victorious 31-20.

Brad Smith's record currently stands at 17-1-1.

Also extending fine records were Romulus grapplers Robert Morrison and Marvin Williams. Morrison extended his record to 19-0 with a decision over Ray Fox at 167 pounds and Williams record is now 17-2, after pinning Joe Parr at 185 pounds.

Williams made the sole Romulus pin, compared to three for Wayne Memorial.

The wrestlers competed on an at-random basis, weight order having been drawn from a hat, a system which some coaches prefer because it relieves tension and breaks the monotony of wrestling in the same program position at every meeting.

Camp Linden rated high

In a survey of resident camps operated by agencies funded all or in part by the Detroit United Community Services Camp Linden, owned by the local Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, was the only camp to receive top rating in land management and condition, it was announced recently.

The survey was conducted by Camp Organization and Planning Associates to find ways of coordinating camp services in the metropolitan Detroit area.

The interim report cited land management and environmental programs at top-rated camps, such as Camp Linden's extensive tree plantings and landscaping of powerline cut-throughs.

Other facilities rated included flexibility of facilities for expansion, encroachment (referring to size of camp property and buffer zones), evidence of long range planning and conditions of facilities and maintenance.

Profiles of the seven camps in Livingston County showed that five, including Camp Linden, received ratings of 5 or better (on a 10-point scale) in all areas. Best record was posted by Camp Innesfree, a six-year old camp owned by the Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit.

The Huron Valley Girl Scout Council receives less than $30,000 from the Detroit United Community Services to help support troop services in Western Wayne county. None of the Detroit funds goes to Camp Linden. The total budget for the Huron Valley Council is $215,000.

Letters to the editor

Dear Editor,

Why is it, that the Romulus School Board, and City Hall are good at passing the buck.

I have been trying to get a Bus Shelter built on the S.E. Corner of Hannan and Chase Rds.

The School Board says it's a Legal Matter, so I checked with City Hall. City Hall says it's up to the School Board.

Why are they trying to push it from one to the other?

The children are the ones that are suffering, from the cold and the rain. It seems funny that anything the School Board wants they get, but when it comes to the health and safety of or children they forget about it. Why?

Any help you can give, will help the children on Chase Rd.

Sincerely yours,

James McCullough

Thanks also to Cub Pack 821 for their kindness at Thanksgiving.

Our sincere thanks and bless everyone for being so thoughtful while I was in the hospital.

Belleville

London calls

Tom Ketchum

Students are busy at BHS after a sleepy vacation. Coming up sooner than you think will be the senior trip to London, England.

In an election last fall, London was picked over Texas and the traditional New York-Boston tour. A fair-sized group has signed up for the London trip already.

Also, there are some German Club members headed toward Munich, Germany and this appears to be certain this year. Last year the tour never got off the ground due to lack of interest.

And, of course, Student Council has arranged a non-school function trip to the Bahamas.

The Senior Trip will be in late May, after the seniors finish classes. The other two trips will take place during Spring Vacation.

It's a whole new band, folks! The Belleville High School Symphony Band announces the Family Concert Series. Four great concerts on Jan. 31, Feb. 28, March 28, and April 13 are scheduled. They cost a dollar each at the door, even less when you buy season ticket - which also includes two $1 coupons good at Picnic Pops.

The season ticket, a $6 value, costs only $3. It's a great opportunity to hear some great music.

The February concert will have an added attraction: three handsome clocks, a grandfather, bookshelf, and mantel, will be raffled away.

The seniors will be ordering announcements tomorrow. A five dollar deposit is required. It won't be too long before Commencement in June.

Students will be happy to know that the school board has approved several items and they now await, Mr. Kaulitz's signature.

Included are a student lounge proposal and early graduation for students who meet graduation requirements. Thanks to the Hardworking student council, many helpful changes have been enacted at BHS.

Everyone should be happy to know that Cominghome will be Feb. 2 this year. And the senior guys are preparing for the festivities by circulating petitions for King nomination. Some don't have to worry about it; their girl friends, buddies and enemies are circulating the petitions for them.

All the clubs have been invited to make miniature floats to be paraded around the gym during the half of the basketball game.

Hip-Hip-Horray for the Red, White and Blue! The tattered, torn and almost non-existent flag has been replaced (finally) and it is proudly waving from the flag pole.

10. Mayor Carmichael reported as follows:

The City's Position Statement to be presented at the Public Hearing, January 5, 1973, at which the Wayne County Airport Authority will discuss its Preliminary Environmental Impact Statement, is nearing completion. A preliminary draft is ready and being revised at this time. The City will base its major objection on the fact that by its own admission, the Preliminary Environmental Impact Statement issued the Airport Authority is at best incomplete and based on obsolete and/or fallacious statistics. The City will insist that a complete Environmental Impact Study be conducted giving consideration to the proposed East-West Runways, as well as, the proposed New Terminal Building, items completely disregarded in its present Statement. The City's Position Statement should be completed by Thursday, January 4, 1973, at which time copies will be delivered to each Councilman.

I, Leonard J. Folmar, Clerk for the City of Romulus, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the minutes of the Regular Meeting of the Romulus City Council held on January 2, 1973.

City of Romulus

++ Copies of the budget are available in the City Clerks Office for public perusal.

Chamber's efforts brighten Romulus

Romulus Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael and the Romulus-Metro International Airport Chamber of Commerce made certain that the city's downtown area was decorated for the Christmas holidays, reported Mrs. Dolores Ristow, the chamber's executive director, secretary and public relations officer.

Last year, the chamber purchased over $300-worth of Christmas decorations, and made arrangements for the city to put them up, Mrs. Ristow said.

"The decorations went up late, and I questioned the mayor, who is also the chamber's liaison with the city, about it," she explained. "He told me he had instructed the Department of Public Works (DPW) to handle the task, but a heavy ice and snow storm bogged down all Romulus traffic to a crawl just before the holidays, and Carmichael said he had to order the DPW to 'give priority to the safety of the people first'.

"Once the hazardous road problem was cleared, the mayor did see to it that the city was decorated immediately," Mrs. Ristow continued. "The decorations may not have been the 'most,' but at least they showed an effort in trying to have the streets of Romulus trimmed in keeping with the holiday spirit."

Mrs. Ristow said the chamber has received many inquiries as to why the city didn't have any "show of Christmas" in the downtown area. "Hopefully, next year the decorating project can be started a little sooner, avoiding a last minute scramble, and possibly we'll be in a position to add to the trimmings," she concluded.

Hinchey also announced that the hospital's annual corporate board meeting will be held Jan. 25, when there will be an election of directors and the reading of annual reports, followed by an election of officers of the board of directors.

Ford questions engineers

WASHINGTON — Two Michigan representatives have asked the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers to correct "inconsistent and unfair" applications of the Rivers and Harbors Act of 1930. Republican Marvin Esch and Democrat William Ford said the Corps' proposed landfill disposal at Pointe Mouillee, near Monroe, would be detrimental "to one of the few remaining wildlife areas."

'Witnesses' at Dundee

The gymnasium at the Dundee High School was transformed into a lecture room for the 1,519 who attended the semi-annual circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses for this area this past weekend.

"All who came brought Bibles, notebooks, and pencils," said Mr. Bourke, presiding overseer of the Belleville congregation, "for Jehovah's Witnesses are not only students of the Bible, but they will also apply what they have learned from these two full days of discussions, discourses, and demonstrations."

Mr. David P. Biegler, special representative of the Watchtower Society of Brooklyn, New York, was the main speaker.
